There is no one formula for writing a telework policy. Many of the sample policies and guides found in books and on the Internet are useful, but are often aimed at a particular type of organization. You may find one that works well for your organization that you can use as a model for your own policy. Since this toolkit is designed to be used by organizations of any type or size, it is impossible to present a one-size-fits-all model policy in the toolkit. Instead, over 40 policies from various types of organizations, both public and private, were dissected into their component parts, which are presented here for your review.

Most policies are arranged as clauses, and that is the approach used here. Each clause contains examples of language taken from the policies that were examined. Reviewing these examples will help you determine if you need a similar clause you need in your policy, and if so, if the issues addressed in the clause are ones you should also address. So, in a sense, this is not so much a guide to "writing" a policy as one for "thinking" about a policy.

Using so many examples gives the impression that a policy has to be long and involved. It doesn't. The length is determined by how many issues you feel it is necessary to address. More importantly, consideration should be given to the degree of authority individual managers should have in making telework arrangements. For some organizations, the policy is functionally a "guide" so that managers will know which issues to consider when determining a telework arrangement with an individual employee. When this is the case, much of the authority rests with managers and the telework agreement takes on greater importance.

In the following examples the word "organization" is used for "company" or "agency," and the word "customer" is used as a universal term for those served. The terms "telework" and "teleworker" are substituted for a variety of other terms with the same meaning.

Ex Without solving, determine whether the equations have one, two or no real roots In order to do this you will have to determine the DISCRIMINANT.

a) $x^2 - 9x + 7 = 0$

$9^2 - 4(7)$

$81 - 28 = 53$

Discriminant: 53

Conclusion: 2 real roots

b) $5x^2 - 8x = -4$

$8^2 - 4(5)(4)$

$64 - 80 = -16$

Discriminant: -16

Conclusion: no real roots

c) $4x^2 - -36x - 81$

$1296 - 1296 = 0$

Discriminant: 0

Conclusion: exactly one real root

Ex. Determine the values of k for which the equation $3x^2 - 5x + k = 0$ has two real roots Then use one value of k to write an equation that has two real roots

$b^2 - 4ac > 0$

$25 - 4(3)(k) > 0$

$25 - 12k > 0$

$\frac{25}{12} > \frac{12k}{12}$

$k < 25/12$

$k < \frac{25}{12}$ & Equation $3x^2 - 5x$

Ex Determine the value of 'K' for which the equation $x^2 + kx + 4 = 0$ has the following

a One real root

$b^2 - 4ac = 0$

$k^2 - 4(4) = 0$

$k^2 = 16$

$k = \pm 4$

b Two DIFFERENT real roots

$b^2 - 4ac > 0$

$k^2 > 16$

$k < -4$, $k > 4$

c. No real Roots

$b^2 - 4ac < 0$

$k^2 \not> 16$

$-4 < k < 4$

How Can I Test My Fax Machine?

I just hooked up a new fax machine and I'd like to test it, just to make sure it works. How can I do that?

Presumably you want to test your fax machine by sending a fax from it and receiving a fax with it. Here's how to do both:

To test the send functionality of your fax machine, send a one-page fax to 1-855-330-1239 (a toll-free number in the United States.) When it's finished transmitting, point your web browser to Fax Thy... It's a fun web site that displays whatever is faxed to that number. Within a minute, your fax should appear on the site. Click the thumbnail to see a larger version.

To test the receive functionality of your fax machine, point your web browser to Fax2eru... this site lets you send faxes for free to anywhere in the United States and Canada. Within a few minutes, your fax machine should ring — hopefully it will automatically answer and spit out the test fax.

Phonics Instructions. The letter f is a consonant that almost always makes the sound /f/ as in fish. This sound can be made without using the vocal cords or the schwa sound at the end. Say /f/ not "fuh." Ask the student to practice the /f/ sound in isolation. Then read aloud the name of each picture: fish, flower, pizza, bird, saw, fox, bag, fan. Have the student sort the pictures.

Student Directions: Cut out the pictures at the bottom of the page. Place the pictures that begin with the /f/ sound under the letter f. Place the others under the trash can.

Property managers get help on Web

By Kimberly Miller
The Palm Beach Post

As a homeowners association president, Greenacres resident Allen Borza was frustrated by the process of hiring companies for community-related jobs such as painting, landscaping and roofing.

But responses were so all-inclusive — one company sent landscape "as needed," another 25 times per year — and back-ground and licensing checks were time consuming.

So as an entrepreneur, the 29-year-old started world up on Web-based software to connect community associations with vendors, while also streamlining the process of requests-for-proposals and the pre-screening of companies.

In October, after more than two years of research and legwork Borza, with co-founder Gerry Cacciatore, 50, launched CAMassistant.com — a website where property managers can pitch jobs to qualified vendors and companies can bid for projects. CAM stands for Community Association Manager.

"Now the property managers don't have to spend as much time finding vendors and clearing all their credentials, said Borza, who in 2005 founded the suburban Lake Worth-based graphic design company Green Group Studio. "It's an all-in-one solution for property managers."

The way it works is property managers submit a request-for-proposal on the website. Eligible companies, which have already had their background checks performed by CAMassistant.com, are sent emails alerting them to the job. Vendors can then submit proposals in a uniform format that takes the guesswork out of hiring.

"The vendors have to submit their liability insurance information and professional licenses, which is all uploaded into the website," Borza said. "It's just a more efficient way for property managers to get these jobs done."

Companies pay a one-time $99 pre-screening fee to participate in the website's bidding process. The fee is refundable if the company doesn't get a job within one year of submitting information. There also is a referral fee charged each time a company is awarded a job.

The site is free for property managers.

Diversification and Asset Allocation — Important Keys to Investment Success

The words seem complicated — "diversification" and "asset allocation." But, in fact, the ideas are quite simple. Remember the saying "Don't put all of your eggs in one basket"? That is the basic idea behind diversification.

Diversification is simply spreading your money among different investments. Diversification attempts to take advantage of the pluses of each investment, with the goal of earning more consistent investment returns.

In general, broad diversification is possible only if you have large amounts of money to invest. But, by putting your money together with the money of your co-workers and other investors in the fund investments offered by your employer's plan, you achieve "automatic" diversification.

Each investment fund invests in a number of investments. A stock fund, for instance, typically invests in numerous companies in many different industries. If one company or industry has problems, the fund should not suffer a major loss because the fund is sufficiently diversified. Similarly, a bond fund usually invests in bonds with varying maturity dates issued by various entities. This provides a measure of protection in the event an issuer defaults.

You can further diversify your plan investments by investing in different types of funds offered by your plan. For example, by spreading money among the plan's investment alternatives — such as a stock fund, a bond fund, and a money market fund — you would diversify your plan investments more than by investing in just one type of fund. Keep in mind, though, that diversification can only help control risk — it cannot ensure against possible market losses.

But diversification is only the first step. Once you decide to diversify among the alternatives offered by the plan, you need to decide how much money to put in the various types of funds. This step is called asset allocation.

The decisions of which funds to choose and how much to put into each choice depend in large part on your personal situation.

These allocations are samples only. The proper asset allocation for your situation may differ. Your final decision on asset allocation is based on your individual situation, needs, goals, and aversion to risk. If any of these factors change, you should review your investment allocation.

"The individual who speaks out most loudly for the death penalty feels that he himself should really be condemned to death, to pay for the great aggression (violence) within him that he dares not express The criminal or murderer being executed dies for the "evil" within each member of his society, then, and a magical transference takes place "

As long as power is equated with violence, then you will feel it necessary to regulate normal aggression in your behavior, and considering power as violent, you will be afraid to act to some extent. You will then consider goodness and powerlessness to be somewhat synonymous, and equate power with evil Not wanting to face such "evil" in yourself, you may then direct it outward and transfer it to another area

As a society you may project it upon the criminal, as a nation upon a foreign country As an individual you may place this power upon an employer, a labor union, or any other segment of society

In whatever area you choose, though, you will feel relatively weak in comparison with the strength that you have projected outward

You meet your own denied power, you see, whenever you find yourself in a situation where you feel weak in comparison to another person or situation that frightens you

HISTORY

Mr. Herbert was referred for follow-up. When last evaluated, he was referred for an updated MRI given his new onset left lower extremity radiculopathy. He is over 10 months status post right L4-5 synovial cyst excision. He returns today for examination of the results. This was a MRI. To the extent of my medical evaluation, his radicular left leg pain has resolved, but unfortunately he feels his pain has responded to moderate dull pain/lumbar soreness with this. He describes his pain as worse upon waking in the morning and lasts throughout the day.

PHYSICAL EXAMINATION

Lower extremity neurologic testing is unchanged with regard to strength and sensation to the lower extremities.

DIAGNOSTIC TESTS

X-RAY FINDINGS

Radiographs of the AP and lateral radiographs from his prior office visit on 07/09/09 do reveal a subtle anterolisthesis of approximately 3 mm at the L4-5 level.

MRI: An updated MRI of the lumbar spine performed at DIAGNOSTIC on 12/30/09 reveals a left-sided synovial cyst at L4-5. There is also a tear and extrusion of the herniated nucleus pulposus at the L4-5 level. The report dictates that as the L5-S1 level.

DIAGNOSIS

2 Status post right L4-5 synovial cyst excision.

TREATMENT PLAN

Mr. Herbert has a synovial cyst that is likely the pain generator at the L4-5 level. His symptoms have progressed with conservative care and at this point, I would like to proceed with an L4-5 minimally invasive microscopic decompression. I would like to perform a left L4-5 minimally invasive microscopic decompression. I would likely entail an L4-5 transforaminal lumbar interbody fusion. The risks discussed briefly with the patient today. On his next visit I will get a left lateral flexion-extension radiographs to check his spine will be maintained to make sure he does not destabilize. I will want to see him in the future.

CDPH Fines 12 Hospitals For Errors

Although Mishaps Repeat, Reports Trending Down

The California Department of Public Health issued 1 administrative penalties to hospitals on Wednesday for errors that killed or endangered patients. Although records indicate similar mishaps are being repeated, agency officials said its surveillance is contributing to a decline in the overall rate of reported medical events.

UC San Francisco Medical Center became the first hospital in California to receive five administrative penalties when it was fined $50,000 after a surgical team left an 18-inch sponge in patient undergoing intestinal resection, leading to a severe infection and a subsequent procedure to remove it. The sponge was omitted from a count after a nurse preparing to go on a break, assumed all the sponges had been collected, and overrode a bar coding device to reach the correct count.

An almost identical incident led to a $50,000 fine against Riverside Community Hospital in that instance a clamp was left in a patient's male going to abdominal procedure while a nurse was relieved for a break. Miscommunication between nurses and physicians was ultimately blamed.

It was the second time UCSF has been fined for a surgical mishaps three other penalties were for medication-related errors. Although fines for administrative penalties are supposed to rise to $75,000 for a second mishap and $100,000 for third and subsequent mishaps, legislation passed two years ago exempted all incidents that occurred prior to 2009 from counting toward increased fines.

A UCSF spokesperson did not immediately respond to a request for comment.

Los Angeles County-USC Medical Center received its four administrative penalty when a nurse anesthetist administered general anesthesia to a patient with a physician's permission but outside of the direct supervision. The patient, who was undergoing a graft for a skin burn, required resuscitation and suffered brain damage. He is now being treated in a rehabilitation facility. Although medication was directly involved in the error, it was classified as a surgical mishap like the fifteenth penalty received by the hospital.

Medication and surgical errors are the leading causes of administrative penalties according to CDPH officials. They make up the bulk of the 198 penalties levied against 124 hospitals since 2007. Such incidents have been repeatedly documented in CDPH survey reports often with little variation

3.2.A: Indirect Speech with Subjunctive I

In this part of Unit 2 you will learn how to restate what someone has said using indirect speech. Also, in order to help you use more sophisticated arguments, you will look at three causal conjunctions. Furthermore, you will learn to differentiate the closely related modal verbs "sollen and sollten"

Subjunctive I for Present Tense

Reported speech (indirekte Rede) is what we use to describe what a person has said without quoting him/her directly when using the indirect speech you are reporting on another person's speech and intentions without inserting your own opinions into the matter

Look at the sentences below and indicate if they are using indirect speech.

Direkte oder indirekte Rede	Ja	Nein
1. Er sagte: „Ich wohne seit 1990 in Deutschland."		X
2. Carina sagte, sie wohne seit 1990 in Deutschland
3. Elif behauptet, die deutsche Lebensweise sei ihr sehr nahe
4. „Immer wieder gab es Konflikte wegen meiner Hautfarbe!", sagte Erika.
5. Viktoria meinte, sie fühle sich in Hamburg nicht abgegrenzt.
6. „Ich weiß nicht, was diese Integration eigentlich ist", sagte Viktoria.
7. Elif sagte, sie würde sich entsprechend den Vorschriften des Korans.

What do you notice about those sentences that are reported speech? How is the speech act reported? Is there anything different about the verb in the second half of the sentence?

Let's focus on the first part of reporting someone's speech. Remember that when you are reporting what someone said that it can sometimes get a little boring to say "he said" all the time. That's why you have a lot of different options.

Adobe Acrobat PDF Files

Adobe® Portable Document Format (PDF) is a universal file format that preserves all of the fonts, formatting, colours and graphics of any source document, regardless of the application and platform used to create it.

Adobe PDF is an ideal format for electronic document distribution as it overcomes the problems commonly encountered with electronic file sharing.

- Anyone, anywhere can open a PDF file. All you need is the free Adobe Acrobat Reader. Recipients of other file formats sometimes can't open files because they don't have the applications used to create the documents.
- PDF files always print correctly on any printing device.
- PDF files always display exactly as created, regardless of fonts, software, and operating systems. Fonts, and graphics are not lost due to platform, software, and version incompatibilities.
- The free Acrobat Reader is easy to download and can be freely distributed by anyone.
- Compact PDF files are smaller than their source files and download a page at a time for fast display on the Web.

Reminders

- DO practice, practice, practice. More practice will help you seem natural, confident, and conversational, and will help you stand out from the crowd!
- DO focus on the positives. Talk about your experience, strengths, and what you bring to the job that others do not.
- DON'T talk about being unemployed, previous or current health issues, being laid off, etc. This is your time to shine and to make a great first impression! You can always bring up more sensitive issues at a later time, once you've already made that first impression.
- DO evaluate your body language. Make sure your body language reflects what you're saying. Make eye contact, smile, sit up straight and don't cross your arms if possible.
- DON'T use the same elevator speech over and over. You will need to make sure that your speech is targeted for the particular job/industry you are looking for.

Income Infuser Review

Everyone is looking to make more money. Sometimes people just need to make a little bit more income and others are looking to create a full time job from home. The problem for most people is finding a system that actually works. It can be a job or else! What makes working from home such a attractive option is that you basically get the freedom to do whatever you want. If you want to go play golf for three or four hours and come home and work for eight hours it is something that you can do! Or if you want to go family activities all day you can. You don't have to ask for time off or anything. Also, You don't have to work normal nine to five hours and don't have a boss always hounding you. You are your OWN boss!

This is a very attractive thing for most people but it can also have it's downfalls such as your income depends on you and no one else. You only get what you put into it so, if you decide you only want to work like 5-7 hours a day you'll don't expect to make a million dollars a day from that.

One of these great systems that actually shows you how to make thousands of dollars per week following a proven system that ANYONE can easily duplicate. They are so confident in their system that offering you a completely 60 day[illegible]This system is called Income Infuser.

You may be saying 'Oh yeah I've heard all of this BS before' and you may have, but have you seen a system that is TESTED, PROVEN, And has ACTUAL customer Testimonials? Honestly Income Infuser should

A weekly look at a local housing market

Westchester Co., N.Y.

Posh area also has affordable options

By Christine Ingas
USA TODAY

Westchester County, N.Y., is along the Hudson River and close to New York City. Because it is home to many Wall Street execs, when it felt much pain after the stock market's meltdown two years ago.

"It was not just whether people were going to survive and have a job," says Lesli Caro, president of the Westchester Putnam Association of Realtors. "Their investment portfolios also were slashed."

And the local real estate market suffered as buyers and sellers froze. "In my community, between October of 2008 and March of 2009 there was not a single house sold," Caro says.

▸ Sales status. Suburban Westchester County has long been known for wealth and "old money." But that doesn't mean that everyone who lives in White Plains, the county seat, or in Westchester's small towns and villages is affluent. And homes in Westchester range from very no-pretense estates to more affordable single-family homes and townhouses.

Median-price home

This colonial-style home, built in 1928, is on the market.
▸ Price: $680,500.
▸ Bedrooms: 3.
▸ Bathrooms: 1 full, 1 half.
▸ Size: 1,956 square feet.
▸ Features: Eat-in kitchen, den, fireplace, outdoor basement, artists studio/garage, deck, patio, gardens.

Earlier this year the federal tax credit helped bring more first-time home buyers into the market. And new mortgage sales have kept sales moving.

"The purchasing has been wearing off," Caro says. "People have learned whether or not they are going to stay employed, and people always need to move and their needs change."

Since the tax credit ended, sales have slowed a bit in Westchester, like the drop was not as dramatic as it was in other parts of the state.

In September, sales in Westchester were 2% below the same month in 2009. During the same period, New York state's home sales were down 18%.

▸ Price points. The median home price peaked at $730,000 in March 2007. Prices came down during the recession, making homes more affordable.

Because of unemployment and subprime loans, home foreclosures increased in Westchester County and keep home prices down. "We're seeing a lot number of short sales," Caro says.

But the market has not been hit as hard by distressed properties as many other parts of the nation. Home prices -- in particular, high-end luxury properties -- recently started to increase.

In September the median sales price in Westchester County of $640,000 was 16% higher than September 2000.

The areas of the county that are farther north are less costly in Croton-on-Hudson, for example there are many single-family homes priced at $300,000 or less, Caro says.

▸ Local economy. In Westchester County, jobs have been improving. The unemployment rate in August was 8.3%, less than the 7.2% in August 2009.

"We were losing a lot more jobs last year," says Jeffrey Nelson, regional labor market analyst for the state labor department. "There is still weakness in the job market, but there is a lot of optimism in the air."

Although some managers are holding back on hiring, temporary hires have increased. "That could be an indication that managers are starting to feel a little more optimistic," Nelson says.

Many people who live in West chester County work in New York City, like some Fortune 500 companies, including IBM and PepsiCo, are major employers in the county.

"When the recession started, the only industry sector that was adding any type of jobs was educational and health services," Nelson says. "Lately we've started to show up in leisure and hospitality and in other sectors."

▸ Hot Tuxedo. "Irvington is an old established village nestled next to the most cosmopolitan city in the world," Caro says. It is a big draw since because prices have come down, making homes more affordable.

Irvington leads like a quaint English hamlet. Many colonial, Tudor and Victorian homes were built between 1890 and 1930.

Irvington is only 15 miles from Midtown Manhattan. Although it is largely an affluent enclave it has a wide range of homes including more low-expensive studio apartments. One two-bedroom condo with a fireplace built in 1925, is on the market for $189,000.

Coming next week: Burlington, Vt.

Most expensive home

This waterfront 4-acre estate with views of Long Island Sound and Larchmont Harbor is on the market.
▸ Price: $12.9 million.
▸ Bedrooms: 5.
▸ Bathrooms: 4 full, 1 half.
▸ Size: 8,310 square feet.
▸ Features: estate built in 1951, eat-in kitchen, powder room, patio, gym, swimming pool with pool house, gazebo, tennis room, guest cottage, private dock, four-plus-car garage

HP Fax Products - Testing Your HP Fax Machine with the HP Fax Test Service

Introduction

This document will assist you in testing your HP Fax machine using the HP Fax Test Service.

Print this document for easy reference by clicking the Printable Version link in the upper-right corner of this page.

Test your fax machine

Before the steps listed in this section, follow the troubleshooting steps listed below.

IMPORTANT:

Because the HP Fax Test Service uses Caller ID blocking, if you have telephone service that is configured to block Caller ID, you must temporarily disable this feature before testing your fax machine. Contact your telephone service provider for instructions on how to disable Caller ID blocking. Once testing is complete, you can re-enable Caller ID blocking. Some telephone service providers require you to enter a code to disable Caller ID blocking for each call you make, while others require you to change a setting in your telephone service account. Other telephone service providers require you to change a setting in your fax machine. For more information, see the documentation that came with your fax machine, including voice mail, call blocking, and anonymous call rejection features.

NOTE:

Before you begin testing your fax machine, it is a good practice to set the Automatic Reports or Fax Error Report feature to print a report only if there is a fax error. This way, you will be notified only if there is a problem with your fax machine. For more information, see the documentation that came with your fax machine, including voice mail, call blocking, and anonymous call rejection features.

1. Send a one page black and white test fax to 1-888-HPFAXMD (1-888-473-2963).
2. When your fax is received by the HP Test Fax Service, you will get an automatic fax back to your fax machine confirming that we received your fax. This will be a one page black and white fax. Do not send a blank fax.

If you do not receive a return fax within 5-7 minutes, there may be a problem with the setup of your fax machine. Consult the user manual that came with the manufacturer for troubleshooting and configuration.

NOTE:

The test call uses a total of 1 minute of time on the HP Test Fax Service. If you make multiple test calls, the total time of all calls is billed to the account associated with the fax machine. Make sure that the fax machine is not set to dial 1-888-HPFAXMD or any other long distance number.

For more information or assistance, click Contact HP at the top of this page.

Technical Specifications for Valid Electronic Signatures

In order to sign electronically each user must pass a double authentication system

1. The first authentication requires the user to login to the Anasazi system. The user logs in with their assigned staff ID and a unique password that the user sets

2. The second authentication system requires the user to re-enter their Anasazi password at the time of signing the electronic document. The user enters their staff ID or can pick their name from a selection list

The user then clicks on the "Yes" radio button. A password dialog box appears requiring the user to enter their password

Once the user re-enters their password, the date and time are automatically completed and all 3 fields are shadowed so that they cannot be modified

3. Technical security features will control the use of the signatures by staff credential type. Example: In the electronic system, an LVN is prohibited from completing a Case Management Service

Adobe Acrobat PDF Files

Adobe® Portable Document Format (PDF) is a universal file format that preserves all of the fonts, formatting, colours and graphics of any source document, regardless of the application and platform used to create it.

Adobe PDF is an ideal format for electronic document distribution as it overcomes the problems commonly encountered with electronic file sharing.

- Anyone anywhere can open a PDF file. All you need is the free Adobe Acrobat Reader. Recipients of other file formats sometimes can't open files because they don't have the applications used to create the documents.
- PDF files always print correctly on any printing device.
- PDF files always display exactly as created, regardless of fonts, software and operating systems. Fonts and graphics are not lost due to platform, software and version incompatibilities.
- The free Acrobat Reader is easy to download and can be freely distributed by anyone.
- Compact PDF files are smaller than their source files and download a page at a time for fast display on the Web.

How Can I Test My Fax Machine?

I just hooked up a new fax machine, and I d like to test it, just to make sure it works How can I do that?

Presumably, you want to test your fax machine by sending a fax from it and receiving a fax with it. Here's how to do both.

To test the send functionality of your fax machine, send a one-page fax to 1-855-330-1239 (a toll-free number in the United States) When it's finished transmitting, point your web browser to Fax Toy — it s a fun web site that displays whatever is faxed to that number Within a minute, your fax should appear on the site Click the thumbnail to see a large version

To test the receive functionality of your fax machine, point your web browser to FaxZero this site lets you send faxes for free to anywhere in the United States and Canada. Within a few minutes, your fax machine should ring — hopefully, it will automatically answer and spit out the test fax.

Known issues with version 1.11

PCs with nVIDIA USB controller chips may not offer optimum performance for audio streaming over USBs 2.0, resulting in audio artifacts. A higher latency setting or the addition of a non-nVIDIA USB 2.0 card is required.

To find out what controller chip your PC uses:

- Go to START > Control Panel > System
- Click on the Hardware tab, then the Device Manager button
- Click the "+" (plus) sign next to Universal Serial Bus Controllers

You will see the chip manufacturer of all installed USB controllers.

If a WDM audio application (e.g.Windows Media Player or iTunes) is running and a US-122L / US-144 unit changes its sample rate the audio will play at the wrong pitch. The workaround is to quit the WDM audio applications and launch it again. The application should now play audio at the correct pitch.

In order to use a US-122L or US-144 actively with Windows Media Player, select the US 122L or US 144 as the Sound playback Default Device in the Audio tab of the Sounds and Audio Devices control panel. Do not configure the audio interface from within Windows Media Player.

Miscellaneous

The MIDI Activity and USB LEDs may continue to illuminate after a connected computer is shut down. This is because some computers continue to provide power on the USBs cable even when shut down.

The US-144's digital input will not be available if the clock mode in the control panel is set to Internal. To use the digital input, set the clock mode to Automatic so the US-144 will clock to the external device.

The MIDI IN indicator lights when any MIDI data is being received at the MIDI IN connector. A device that transmits the MIDI Active Sense message will cause this indicator to flash constantly. To avoid this, disable the use of MIDI Active Sense on the receiving device.

Cubase and Nuendo allow their ASIO ports to be renamed. In the event it becomes necessary to reset the port names (as would be the case when switching between a US-122L and a US-144) perform the following steps:

- From the Devices menu, select Device Setup.
- Click on VST Inputs, then click the Reset button.
- Click on VST Outputs, then click the Reset button.

When using the Windows Media Player and the Control Panel under "Sounds and Audio Devices" Audio Tab has "Microsoft GS Wavetable SW Synth" selected as the MIDI music playback default device. This will not possible to hear that output through the US-122L/144 Line Out or Phones outputs.

Begin ing July 24, 2009 yo a bank may never take or freeze the fi st $1,740 in yo ir bank ar credit union acco unt to pay a judgment, whether or not your account has exempt funds. (Previously the minimum amount was $1,716.)

Are there exceptions to the Exempt Income Protection Act?
Yes. Certain types of credi ors, such as those collecting on student loan debts or child support arrears, may be able to freeze your bank account even if the account contains exempt funds. You should consult a lawyer to determine the best course of action. (See Where can I get more information?)

What if my bank account contains exempt funds?
If you get it rect deposit of the exempt funds listed in this fact sheet, your bank must leave at least $2,500 in the account. If your exempt funds are not direct y deposited into your account, your bank may not be aware that you have exempt funds in the account and might freeze funds you have over $1,740.

You may have to file an Exemption Claim to keep a creditor from taking the exempt funds if 1) your money is not directly deposited into your account or 2) you have more than $2,500 or exempt funds.

What do I do if my bank account contains exempt funds and is restrained or frozen anyway?
1. If your account is restrained or frozen, your bank must send you an Exemption Notice and Exemption Claim Form within two (2) business days of freezing your account. Read the Not ce and Form! The Notice will help you figure out who has your money, how it be exempt from creditors and how to unf reeze your account. The Form will let contact information for the creditor's attorney. You must complete the Form and mail it to your bank and the creditor's attorney within 15 days to prevent the creditor from taking your money.
2. Call the cred tor's attorney to tell him/her that your account contains exempt funds, and to request that your account be released right away. Be prepared to send proof that your account contains exempt funds, such as copies of bank statements, in case the attorney asks for it.

What if my account with exempt funds is frozen and I do not receive the Exemption Notice and Exemption Claim Form?
1. Contact your bank immediately. You can call the customer service l ne or go to your nearest branch. Tell the bank that your account was frozen in error. Ask for the name, telephone number, and fax number of the creditor's attorney.
2. Call the creditor's attorney to tell h m/her that your account contains exempt funds and ask the attorney to notify the bank to release you r account immediately. Be prepared to send proof that your account contains exempt income, such as copies of bank statements.
3. Write a letter to the bank and creditor's attorney to confirm that your acco nt was frozen, that there are exempt funds in the account, and that you did not receive the Exemption Notice or Exemption Claim Form.
4. Report your bank to the New York State Banking Department at 877-BANK NYS or http://www.banking.state.ny.us/cpl.htm. Reporting can help ensure your bank complies in the future.

What if the bank has charged me a "restraint fee?"
If your accounts is wrongly frozen, your bank is not permitted to cha ge any restraint fee. Check you bank statement. Dispute this fee directly with your bank.

If your bank has wrongly charged you a restraint fee, report it to the New York State Banking Department at http://www.bank.ny.state.ny.us/cpl.htm or 877-BANK-NYS. Reporting can help ensure that your bank complies with the law in the future.

Where can I get more information?
The following organizations can provide information and refer you to lawyers for advice or assistance. Please note that neither of these organizations can give you direct legal assistance.

Lawhelp http://www.lawhelp.org/ny/
City Bar Justice Center Legal Hotline 212-626-7383 (Daily 9am-1pm: Tuesday and Thursday 4pm 7pm)

How can I get help budgeting or managing debt to avoid future account freezes?
Call 311 or visit the Department of Consumer Affairs Office of Financial Empowerment (OFE) online at www.nyc.gov/fe to find free and low-cost financial education classes, workshops and counseling throughout New York City to get help managing your money.

How Can I Test My Fax Machine?

I just hooked up a new fax machine, and I'd like to test it, just to make sure it works. How can I do that?

TEST 2.12

Presumably, you want to test your fax machine by sending a fax from it and receiving a fax with it. Here's how to do both.

To test the send functionality of your fax machine, send a one-page fax to 1-888-930-1239 (a toll-free number in the United States). When it's finished transmitting, point your web browser to Fax Toy — it's a fun web site that displays whatever is faxed to that number. Within a minute, your fax should appear on the site. Click the thumbnail to see a large version.

To test the receive functionality of your fax machine, point your web browser to FaxZero. this site lets you send faxes for free to anywhere in the United States and Canada. Within a few minutes, your fax machine should ring — hopefully, it will automatically answer and spit out the test fax.

Example 3

The Acme Company would like to subnet its network (195 5 5 0) so that there are 50 separate subnets. They will need only 2 hosts in each subnet. Complete each of the following

NOTE Because there are so many subnets...you don't need to write them all out. If you can fill in the information required below (the subnet mask, the addresses for the first few subnets, and the total number of subnets created) you obviously get the idea.

Subnet	Network address	Host addresses	Broadcast address
Subnet mask 255.255.255.252
First subnet	195.5.5.0	195.5.5.1 - 195.5.5.2	195.5.5.3
Second subnet	195.5.5.4	195.5.5.5 - 195.5.5.6	195.5.5.7
Third subnet	195.5.5.8	195.5.5.9 - 195.5.5.10	195.5.5.11
Fourth subnet	195.5.5.12	195.5.5.13 - 195.5.5.14	195.5.5.15
Fifth subnet	195.5.5.16	195.5.5.17 - 195.5.5.18	195.5.5.19
Sixth subnet	195.5.5.20	195.5.5.21 - 195.5.5.22	195.5.5.23
Seventh subnet	195.5.5.24	195.5.5.25 - 195.5.5.26	195.5.5.27

How many subnets are actually created with this subnet mask you used? 64

Install w/boot 100MB partition new drive

Windows 7 Professional x64

I plan to install Windows 7 on a shiny new Partiol Torqx 128GB SSD. I have used this method in the past for new disks. I see no reason why it wouldn't work on an SSD but am I right? The method just uses diskpart (cmd prompt) Would it be just as good to plug it into my working system and create an active partition then install from there and delete the old installation on the other disk?

Here is the method that I know works fine.

During Setup, if you create a new partition on a clean HDD (no partitions) or delete all partitions and then create a new one from the Partition screen in Setup, Win7 will create the 100MB boot partition, and you can't stop it, cancel it. If you want to install Win7 to a clean HDD, but don't want the boot partition do this:

At the first setup screen (Language, Keyboard, etc.) press SHIFT+F10. This will open a command prompt window. Enter the following diskpart commands to create a partition:

Diskpart
List disk

(this command is important. It will show you what disk drives you have. Most likely your hard drive will be will be Disk 0, but you need to check it first.)

select disk 0
clean
create partition primary size=60000

(this creates a partition 60GB in size. If you want to use the whole hard drive, just leave off the (size=number))

select partition 1 active
format fs=ntfs quick

Type Exit to leave Diskpart. Type Exit to close the command prompt. Now continue with the install. When you get to the partition screen, highlight the partition you just created and click Next. Windows will install to the partition you created and not create the 100MB boot partition. Instead, you will see a C:\Boot folder when the install is finished (like Vista has).

So...given the necessarily proprietary knowledge needed to respond to NSF and the universal ability to ignore it and continue with a DIS/DCS controlled call, what's the problem? The problem is something called demod/remod. Virtually all the high capacity leased phone networks use some type of translation device to change the T.30 messages of a fax into an intermediate protocol (demodulation) so that they can achieve their transmission performance advantages over the standard PSTN once that protocol is changed back into T.30 (remodulation). This has become even more pointed with the advent of Voice over IP (VoIP) wherein the switched circuit PSTN is replaced by the switched packet network which requires a gateway at most sort to convert signals between them. Of late the intermediate protocol of choice has become T.38 transferred by UDPTL packets. As long as the gateways that have to perform this intermodding have a T.30 fax call to work with, all well and good. But what happens when the originating device communicating through a pair of these gateways discovers an NSF message from an answerer that it recognizes and responds to with an NSS and a burst of proprietary page code? The gateways simply throw up their hands and go out for a beer

A VoIP gateway becomes by nature of an operation at the terminal. It has to have a T.30 call as though it were either answering the call (connected to the originating terminal) or originating the call (connected to the answering terminal). In point of fact, a pair of gateways must sustain two simultaneous fax calls between themselves and the two the terminals while transferring the T.30 intermediate protocol packets between their IP ports. There is no spare here to handle NSF/NSS. For this reason, gateways of all types, VoIP and otherwise, either zero out the content of the NSF messages or delete it entirely from each the call they carry. This assures that these fax calls stay within the T.30 protocol and limits their support of the to dealing only with the vagaries of T.30's implementation of the terminals.

It sounds like a good solution right up until the user who acutally bought identical fax machines because he liked their high-speed, clean page transmissions over the PSTN, connects them to his VoIP gateways and is enraged that all his wonderful performance has evaporated!

In the late 70s, T.30 was created to make the machines somehow they had never been before, interoperable. But many of their manufacturers wanted to go outside of T.30 and continue to use some of their non-standard tricks and shticks. The integrated circuit had begun to make good on its promise to produce a bounty of affordable consumer electronics. That meant that the machines could go from being arcane, proprietary and extremely expensive to commodities. If only their makers could get over the temptation to make their units different in a way no one else could work with. Clearly a compromise was called for.

The T.30 facsimile protocol was written with many of its tolerances specified loosely enough to accommodate some of the odd stretch and compression of timing and signal content that had plagued fax interoperability since the inception of its market. In numerous places, it was carefully written to be as generally accepting as was possible and still support the desire for inter-operation that caused it to be created in the first place. What it couldn't do was accept all manner of odd page image resolutions, strange encoding and outright changes to the signal flow between terminals. Those manufacturers who really wanted to use their deeply proprietary your U.S. federal income tax status, and not that you meet any other requirements for a VAT exemption in a foreign country.

General Instructions

Purpose of Form

Form 8802 is used to request Form 6166, a letter of U.S. residency certification for purposes of claiming benefits under an income tax treaty or VAT exemption. You cannot use Form 6166 to substantiate that U.S. taxes were paid for purposes of claiming a foreign tax credit.

You cannot claim a foreign tax credit to reduce your U.S. tax liability with respect to foreign taxes that have been reduced or eliminated by reason of a treaty. If you receive a refund of foreign taxes paid with the benefit of Form 6166, you may need to file an amended return with the IRS adjusting any foreign tax credits previously claimed for those taxes.

When To Apply

You should mail your application including full payment of the user fee, at least 45 days before the date you need Form 6166. We will contact you within 30 days if there will be a delay in processing your application. You can call 215-516-2000 (not a toll free number) and select the U.S. residency option if you have questions regarding your application.

Early submission for a current year certification. The IRS cannot accept an early submission for a current year Form 6166 that has a postmark date before December 1. Requests refused with a postmark date earlier than December 1 will be returned to the sender. For example, a Form 6166 request for 2009:

- Received with a postmark date before December 1, 2008 cannot be processed.
- Received with a postmark date on or after December 1, 2008, can be processed with the appropriate documentation.

User Fee

Payment Schedule

Form 8802 application(s) will not be processed until the non-refundable user fee is paid. A single user fee of $35 per Form 8802 submitted will cover a request for up to 20 original Forms 6166 issued under a single taxpayer identification number (TIN), regardless of the country for which certification is requested or the tax period to which the certification applies. An additional $5 will cover a request on the same Form 8802 for up to 20 additional Forms 6166 issued under the same TIN. The following been shows the user fee for the number of Forms 6166 requested on Form 8802.

Number of Forms 6166	User Fee
1 - 20	$ 35.00
21 - 40	$ 40.00
41 - 60	$ 45.00
61 - 80	$ 50.00
81 - 100	$ 55.00

141 - 160	$ 70.00
161 - 180	$ 75.00
181 - 200	$ 80.00

Additional request. Additional requests for Form 6166 submitted on a separate Form 8802 following the procedures established on page 4 will require the payment of a $35 user fee for the first 20 certifications issued.

> Applicants are advised to request all Forms 6166 on a single Form 8802 to avoid paying the $35 user fee charged for processing a second Form 8802.

Payment of the user fee can be by check, money order or electronic payment.

Check or Money Order

Form 8802 must be accompanied by a check or money order in U.S. dollars payable to the United States Treasury in the appropriate amount. Do not send cash.

Multiple Forms 8802. If you are submitting multiple Forms 8802 you may submit a single check or money order payment to cover the aggregate amount of the user fee for all Forms 8802. No more than 999 Forms 8802 can be associated with one check or money order.

Note. If you pay by check, it will be converted into an electronic funds transfer (EFT). This means we will copy your check and use the account information on it to electronically debit your account for the amount of the check. The debit from your account will usually occur within 24 hours, and will be shown on your regular account statement. You will not receive your original check back. We will destroy your original check, but we will keep a copy of it. If the EFT cannot be processed for technical reasons, you authorize us to process the copy in place of your original check.

Electronic Payment (e-payment)

Visit the IRS website at www.irs.gov and enter "e-pay" in the search box. Click on the first search result, "e-pay." Choose "User Fees" in the panel of the Electronic Payments Options Home Page and then click on U.S. Residency User Fee. Complete the form and submit it on the information requested on the website.

Once your electronic payment has been processed, you will receive an electronic payment confirmation number for the transaction. Enter the electronic payment confirmation number on page 1 of Form 8802 before you submit the application. Use either the Agency Tracking ID or the Pay Gov ID as the electronic payment confirmation number. If you make an electronic payment covering multiple Forms 8802, the same electronic payment confirmation number must be written on each form. Form 8802 will not be processed if the electronic payment confirmation number has not been entered on the application.

The user fee website requires the entry of the following information:

- Applicant's name
- Applicant's TIN or EIN
- Submitter's name (name of person or entity submitting the payment)
- Cellular email address
- Number of Form(s) 6166 requested
- Payment amount.
- Selection of Automatic Clearing House (ACH) debit or credit card will open a window for account information.

Note. The user fee amount you will be automatically calculated when the number of Form(s) 6166 requested is entered.

Supplemental User Fee Payment

If you have been contacted by the U.S. Residency Certification Unit to make a supplemental payment, you may also use the e-payment system by choosing the supplemental user fee checkbox.

Where To Apply

The method by which you can submit Form 8802 to the IRS depends upon how you choose to pay the user fee.

Payment by Check or Money Order

If you are paying the user fee by check or money order, send the payment, Form 8802, and all required attachments to:

Internal Revenue Service
P.O. Box 71082
Philadelphia, PA 19176-8082

Or by private delivery service to:

Hello World!

analysis—sometimes also known as the 'global commodity chains'(GCC) approach—is a development of the perspective. It challenges the assumption that capitalism is an incremental process contained within nation states by tracking the organizational, geographical, and cultural dimensions of world wide chains for the manufacture and distribution of goods such as clothing, automobiles, food, and drugs. A distinction is sometimes made between producer-driven (transnational corporation) and buyer-driven (retailer/trading company) commodity chains

1 All-weather bigots are prejudiced against some minority groups, and they discriminate against group members. If they do not discriminate in certain social situations, it is because they do not care to, not because they are worried about losing face. They may even take pride in their prejudice. They might tell a racist joke for instance, even if they know that the people around them will disapprove, to demonstrate their "heroic" refusal to be swayed by politically correct tolerance.

2 Fair-weather bigots are prejudiced against some minority groups, but they do not discriminate when there may be negative consequences. This category includes most prejudiced people.

scapegoat A convenient, weak, and socially approved target for economic or social loss or insecurity (p. 235)

internal colony Internal colonialism is a theory of race relations that argues that the position of African Americans in the United States is analogous to the position of colonies to the imperialist powers at the turn of the 20th century. An internal colony is the name for the subjugated group. (p. 235) matrix of dominance An interlocking system of control in which each type of inequality reinforces the others, so that the impact of one cannot be fully understood without also considering the others.

pluralism Maintains that different groups in a stable society can treat each other with mutual respect and that minority cultures can maintain their own distinctiveness and still participate in the greater society without discrimination.

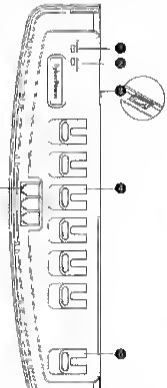
7-Outlet Surge Protector

P704T / P704TRC1



User Manual

CONGRATULATIONS ON YOUR PURCHASE

Thank you for selecting the CyberPower P704T/P704TRC1 Surge Protector. The information contained in this brochure explains the features and operation of the P704T/P704TRC1. Please take a few moments to read this manual.

FEATURES

1. Protected LED Indicator
   Illuminated when the surge protection feature is working properly.
2. Grounded LED Indicator
   Illuminated when a properly grounded AC outlet is detected.
3. ON/OFF Reset Control Switch and Circuit Breaker
   Controls power to all outlets. The switch is also a 15A breaker. When an overload occurs, it will automatically switch off. To resume operation, ensure the overload condition is removed and reset the surge protector by switching the unit ON.
4. Safety Covers
   All the outlets on the surge protector include safety covers. To avoid electric shock and ensure the safety of users and/or to avoid damage from a high-dust environment, slide the plastic outlet cover over outlets that are not used.
5. Surge Protected Data Line Connections
   To protect your equipment from surges along phone/fax/modem lines.
   A. Connect the phone/fax/modem line from the wall outlet into the "In" port.
   B. Connect the phone/fax/modem line(s) in the "Out" ports.
6. One Wide-Spaced Outlet
   Easily plug in large chargers without interfering with the other outlets.

SPECIFICATIONS

- Model Number: P704T/P704TRC1
- Outlets: 7 - 5-15 Duplex/Wide Spaced Outlet
- Surge Protection: 3250 Joules
- Electrical Rating: 125V/15A/1875W
- UL Clamping Voltage: UL 1449 3rd/400V (H-N/H-G/N-G)
- Maximum Peak Current: 105,000A
- 3 AC Lines Protected: H-N/145,000A, H-G: 30,000A, N-G: 30,000A(The maximum surge possible on household wiring is 6,000 volts)
- Response Time: Less than 1 nanosecond
- Attenuation: Up to 35dB
- Telecommunications Protection: RJ11 1 in/1 out
- Circuit Breaker Resettable 15 Amp
- EMI/RFI Filtration: 150 kHz to 100 MHz

CAUTION

TO REDUCE THE RISK OF ELECTRIC SHOCK...Use only in dry locations and only indoors. DO NOT plug into another relocatable power tap. DO NOT "daisy chain" surge protectors. DO NOT use with any aquarium equipment. DO NOT use if properly grounded outlets are not available. DO NOT install this device if there is not at least 10 meters (30 feet) or more of wire between the electrical outlet and electrical service panel. This product features an internal protection that will disconnect the surge protective component at the end of its useful life, but will maintain power to the load – now unprotected.

TROUBLESHOOTING

If the ON/OFF is switched off, the 15 AMP circuit breaker may have tripped. Examine your connected equipment and remove the device that is overloading the circuit. Then, the ON/OFF switch back to RESET.

If the Grounded indicator does not light when you plug in the surge protector, move the surge protector to a different grounded three-prong AC outlet. If it still does not light, return the product to the dealer for assistance. If the surge protector proves to be working properly, your outlets may not be properly grounded and should be inspected by a professional electrician.

If the Grounded indicator turns off after a period of use, the surge protection has been depleted. Replace your surge protector.

If the Protected indicator does not light, the surge protector's AC line is no longer protected from surges. Replace the surge protector. The surge protector may have received a power surge or spike beyond its specified limits that might overload the protection circuitry and make it inactive. The surge protector absorbed enough of the surge to protect your connected equipment, but it will not protect against future surges and spikes.

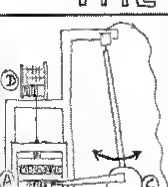
THE FAX MACHINE

MR BAIN

THE WORLDS FIRST FAX MACHINE WAS PATENTED IN 1843, EXACTLY 150 YEARS AGO, BY ALEXANDER BAIN. HE CAME FROM A REMOTE CROFT IN CAITHANESS & , FOR HIS EARLY EXPERIMENTS USED CATTLE JAW BONES FOR HINGES & HEATHER FOR SPRINGS. HIS FAX MACHINE WAS BASED ON AN ELECTRIC CLOCK, WHICH HE HAD ALSO INVENTED.

THE FIRST FAX MACHINE

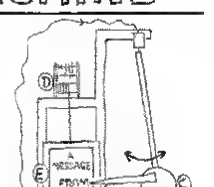


A MESSAGE TO BE FAXED ASSEMBLED OUT OF PRINTERS TYPE, SO MAKING CONTACT TOUCHES RAISED TYPE

B ELECTROMAGNETS, SWITCHED BY ACCURATE CLOCKS KEEP PENDULUMS MOVING.

C PENDULUMS MOVE CONTACTS BACK & FORTH ACROSS TYPE & PAPER.

D MECHANISM TO MOVE PAGE DOWN A BIT AFTER EACH PENDULUM SWING



E PAPER IMPREGNATED WITH CHEMICAL WHICH TURNS BLACK WHEN ELECTRICITY PASSES THROUGH IT.

MR CASSELLI

HIS NEVER DEVELOPED HIS FAX MACHINE, BUT HIS IDEA WAS PERFECTED BY A MR CASSELLI WHO OPENED THE FIRST COMMERCIAL FAX SERVICE BETWEEN PARIS & LYON IN 1865. THE PACE OF BUSINESS WAS SO SLOW THAT THERE WERE NOT ENOUGH CUSTOMERS & IT CLOSED AFTER 5 YEARS

JAPANESE CONFUSION

OFFICE FAX MACHINES FIRST BECAME POPULAR IN JAPAN BECAUSE THERE WAS AN URGENT NEED FOR THOSE PREVIOUSLY PEOPLE HAD TELEPRINTERS WHICH COULD NOT SEND MESSAGES IN JAPANESE BECAUSE THE WRITTEN LANGUAGE HAS TOO MANY CHARACTERS TO FIT ON A KEYBOARD. INSTEAD MESSAGES WERE TRANSLATED & SENT IN ENGLISH, & RETRANSLATED AT THE RECEIVING END, LEADING TO ALL SORTS OF CONFUSIONS.

THERMAL PAPER

HOLD A BIT OF ORDINARY FAX PAPER NEAR AN ELECTRIC FIRE & IT WILL TURN BLACK. THE FAX PRINTER CONTAINS 1728 TINY ELECTRIC ELEMENTS WHICH CAN HEAT UP & COOL DOWN VERY QUICKLY BLACKENING TINY SQUARES OF THE PAPER AS IT PASSES

HANDSHAKE SIGNALS

FAX MACHINES 'TALK TO EACH OTHER' BEFORE SENDING THE FAX. THE PROCEDURE IS SIMILAR TO STARTING A PHONE CONVERSATION

FAX	PHONE
←Called Subscriber Identification	'HALLO, REX HERE'
←Digital Identification Signal —	'CALLING FROM HOME'
→Transmitting Subscriber Identification	'HALLO, TIM HERE'
→Digital Command Signal —	'CAN YOU UNDERSTAND ME IF I SPEAK THIS FAST?'
→Training Check Format —	'CHAT, CHAT CHAT'
←Confirmation For Reception —	'YES, I CAN UNDERSTAND YOU, GO AHEAD'
→ SEND FAX	'CHAT, CHAT, ETC'
→End Of Procedure —	'THAT'S ALL I'VE GOT TO SAY'
←Message Confirmation —	'EVERYTHING UNDERSTOOD, BYE'

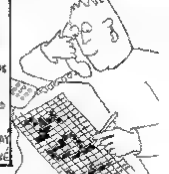
HOW TO BECOME A HUMAN FAX

1) DRAW A PICTURE OR MESSAGE ON SQUARED MATHS PAPER

2) FILL IN ANY SQUARE THAT IS MORE THAN HALF BLACK & RUB OUT ANY THAT ARE MORE THAN HALF WHITE

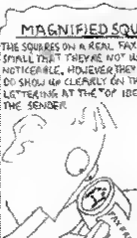
3) RING A FRIEND & ASK HIM TO GET A BLANK BIT OF SQUARED PAPER

4) READ OFF THE COLOURS OF THE SQUARES, A LINE AT A TIME, SAY ONE WHITE, THREE BLACK, TWO WHITE, THREE BLACK. THE FRIEND WILL REPRODUCE YOUR MESSAGE. THIS IS EXACTLY WHAT HAPPENS IN A FAX MACHINE.



MAGNIFIED SQUARES

THE SQUARES ON A REAL FAX ARE SO SMALL THAT THEY'RE NOT USUALLY NOTICEABLE. HOWEVER THEY SOMETIMES DO SHOW UP CLEARLY ON THE SMALL LETTERING AT THE TOP IDENTIFYING THE SENDER



STANDARDS

THE MAIN REASON FOR THE FAX MACHINE'S SUCCESS IS THAT EVERY COUNTRY IN THE WORLD USES THE SAME STANDARD, CALLED GROUP 3. GROUP 4 MACHINES WHICH WORK FOUR TIMES FASTER ARE ALREADY AVAILABLE BUT THEY CAN ONLY WORK WITH DIGITAL TELEPHONE EXCHANGES, AND SOME ENGINEERS BELIEVE THAT GROUP 3 STILL HAS GREAT POTENTIAL FOR IMPROVEMENT

thank you for choosing hp

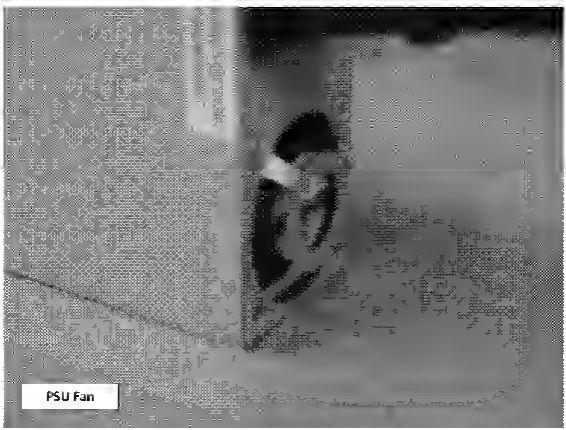
If the PSU does not have a switch, then as soon as you connect the power cord, power should flow through the PSU and you can then observe the fan on that power supply to see if it turns as shown in the image that follows:



If the fans turns, then this means that the PSU is, at least, delivering some voltages out and overheating might not be occurring. If, on the other hand, the fan does not turn, then overheating is, most, likely occurring and the PSU will eventually fail and may damage some other components, in the process. This test works ninety nine percent of the time. There is however, that one percent. If you want to be sure of the power supply's functionality I would suggest that you purchase a power supply tester. This will give you, more, accurate results then the PSU Paper Clip test.

Note

Ring Pattern #1 is often called Short-Short and is the most commonly used

- If the ring pattern you receive is not on this chart, please call your telephone company and ask for one that is shown

- The machine will only answer calls to its registered number
- The first two rings are silent on the machine. This is because the fax must <<listen>> to the ring pattern (to compare it to the pattern that was registered) (Other telephones on the same line will ring.)
- If you program the machine properly it will recognize the registered ring pattern of the 'fax number' within 2 ring patterns and then answer with a fax tone. When the 'voice number' is called, the machine will not answer.

Registering the Distinctive Ring pattern Very Important!

After you have set the Distinctive Ring feature to On, your Distinctive Ring number will receive faxes automatically. The receive mode is automatically set to `Manual` and you cannot change it to another receive mode while Distinctive Ring is set to On. This ensures the Brother machine will only answer the Distinctive Ring number and not interfere when your main telephone number is called.

1. Press Menu, 2, 0, 2.

   Miscellaneous
   2.Distinctive

2. Press ▲ or ▼ to choose `Set`.
3. Press OK.
4. Press ▲ or ▼ to choose the preferred ring pattern you want to use.
   Press OK.
   (You will hear each pattern as you scroll through the four patterns. Make sure you choose the pattern that the telephone company gave you.)
5. Press Stop/Exit.
   Distinctive Ring is now set to On.

Turning off Distinctive Ring

1. Press Menu, 2, 0, 2.

   Miscellaneous
   2.Distinctive

2. Press ▲ or ▼ to choose `Off`.
   Press OK.
3. Press Stop/Exit.

Note

If you do not want to receive faxes on your Distinctive Ring number, you can turn off Distinctive Ring. The machine will stay in `Manual` receive mode so you will need to set the Receive Mode again. (See Choose the correct Receive Mode on page 27.)

Linux Newbie Administrator Guide
by Stan and Peter Klimas

This is a practical selection of the commands we use most often. Press Tab to see the listing of all available command (on your PATH). On my small home system, it says there are 2595 executables on my PATH. Many of these "commands" can be accessed from your favourite GUI front-end (probably KDE or Gnome) by clicking on the right menu or button. They can all be run from the command line. Programs that require GUI have to be run from a terminal opened under a GUI.

On the Performance and Efficiency of Generic Stream Encapsulation Combined with LDPC Coding for the Terrestrial DVB Systems

Abstract—Generic Stream Encapsulation (GSE) provides a simple and efficient method to encapsulate network layer packets or a format suitable for the physical layer. The performance of GSE is considered in this paper through overhead calculations and simulations over four physical layer configurations. The results are compared to the results of Multi-Protocol Encapsulation (MPE) with Transport Stream multiplex. The combined effects of encapsulation and forward error correction is taken into account also.

I. INTRODUCTION

Digital Video Broadcasting for Terrestrial networks (DVB-T) has been a great success that enabled switch off of analogue TV networks in Europe. DVB-T2 (second generation terrestrial) is designed to meet the challenges facing the industry as it seeks to explore commercial opportunities that will follow analogue switch off, providing advanced techniques that will enable new services, e.g. HDTV (high-definition TV). The DVB T2 standardization is under progress [1]. Publication of a DVB-T2 ETSI (European Telecommunications Standards Institute) standard is planned to the end of 2008.

To maintain maximum compatibility with the family of DVB standards, the assumption is that the LDPC (Low Density Parity Check) forward error correction code from DVB-S2 [2] (second generation satellite) will be used [3]. Also, it is expected that the packet structure, including baseband frames, will be preserved.

The first generation of DVB standards support the MPEG format with a Transport Stream packet multiplex (MPEG TS) for data transport. Internet Protocol (IP) packets are encapsulated into MPE (Multi-Protocol Encapsulation) services that are transported in constant length MPEG-TS packets [3]. Figure 2 depicts the MPE encapsulation method at DVB-H (handheld).

The second generation of DVB standards introduce generic modes for carrying arbitrary packets of variable lengths, i.e. Generic Streams (GS) [4]. The use of both Transport Stream and Generic Streams are defined in the commercial requirements [1] for DVB T2.

The Generic Stream Encapsulation (GSE) protocol functions as an adaptation layer to provide efficient encapsulation and fragmentation of IP and other network layer packets, named Protocol Data Units (PDU) over a "generic" physical layer [4]. Such a generic physical layer carries a sequence of data bits or data packets without specific timing constraints. PDUs are encapsulated into one or more GSE packets (Figure 1), which vary by length in order to maximize the efficiency of IP packets transport with minimize overhead. GSE packets are transported in Baseband (BB) frames (L1) in S2 they have the length of the data part of one LDPC code word. The LDPC code in DVB-S2 [2] has a constant code word length of 16200 or 64800 bits whereas the amount of data and redundancy bits are varied to achieve different code rates.

In the next sections the performance of the combinations of GSE transported in baseband frames, protected by the DVB-S2 LDPC code, with other transmission parameter taken from the DVB-T specification is compared to standard DVB T and DVB-H implementations for IP transmission. In addition, the performance of a DVB-T system, where channel coding consisting of concatenated convolutional and Reed-Solomon RS(204,188) codes are replaced by LDPC, is analyzed. Similar approach has been used in [5] in which convolutional and Reed-Solomon codes are replaced with the turbo code. Here replacement is LDPC, since it is currently used, for example in DVB S2. Thus, the following options have been considered in this paper

- IP/GSE/BB over DVB T with LDPC
- IP/MPE/TS/BB over DVB T with LDPC
- IP/MPE/TS over DVB T
- IP/MPE-FEC/TS over DVB-H

II. PROTOCOL OVERHEAD CALCULATIONS

In this section the relative protocol overhead from the link layer and physical layer perspective borders are calculated. The relative protocol overhead is calculated by

Hail Mary

Today begins the 90th Anniversary of the apparition of the Virgin of Fatima.

When you receive this email say a Hail Mary and ask for a special favor

"Hail Mary, full of grace. The Lord is with thee. Blessed art thou among women and blessed is the fruit of thy womb, Jesus. Holy Mary, Mother of God, pray for us sinners, now and at the hour of our death. Amen." (your request)

Please do not break the Novena , send it to 12 people you think deserve justice, peace, love, health, prosperity and truth. When you are down to nothing, God is up to something. This has been traveling since 5/13/07!

Prayer to St. Joseph over 1900 years old

O St. Joseph whose protection is so great, so strong, so prompt before the Throne of God, I place in you all my interests and desires. O St. Joseph do assist me by your powerful intercession and obtain for me from your Divine Son all spiritual blessings through Jesus Christ, Our Lord, so that having engaged here below your Heavenly power I may offer my Thanksgiving and Homage to the most Loving of Fathers. O St. Joseph, I never weary contemplating you and Jesus asleep in your arms. I dare not approach while He reposes near your heart. Press him in my name and kiss His fine Head for me, and ask Him to return the Kiss when I draw my dying breath. St. Joseph, Patron of departing souls, pray for us. Amen

Say for nine consecutive mornings for anything you may desire. It has seldom been known to fail.

This prayer was found in the fiftieth year of Our Lord Jesus Christ. In 1500's it was sent by the Pope to Emperor Charles when he was going into battle.

Whoever reads this prayer or hears it or carries it, will never die a sudden death, nor be drowned, nor will poison take effect on them. They will not fall into the hands of the enemy nor be burned in any fire, nor will they be defeated in battle.

Make this prayer known everywhere.

Bishop of Trenton

5 SYMPHONY™ Assay Description

SYMPHONY™ consists of three unique immunohistochemical assays to support your treatment decisions with comprehensive prognostic profiles. TargetPrint® utilizes mRNA to quantify expression of receptor status for ER, PR and Her2, while the BluePrint™ molecular subtype verifies whether or not the receptor pathways are active. Used in combination with the InformaPrint® (MP) Low or High Risk categorization, these prognostic tools further stratify the risk of distant recurrence in breast cancer multiple chemosensitivity and survival prognosis, and which molecular pathways is predominant.

Hail Mary:

Today begins the 90th Anniversary of the apparition of the Virgin of Fatima :

When you receive this email say a Hail Mary and ask for a special favor.

"Hail Mary, full of grace. The Lord is with thee. Blessed art thou among women and blessed is the fruit of thy womb, Jesus. Holy Mary, Mother of God, pray for us sinners, now and at the hour of our death, Amen.? (your request)

Please do not break the Novena , send it to 12 people you think deserve justice, peace, love, health, prosperity and truth. When you are down to nothing, God is up to something. This has been traveling since 5/13/07!

The Road Not Taken

Two roads diverged in a yellow wood
And sorry I could not travel both
And be one traveler, long I stood
And looked down one as far as I could
To where it bent in the undergrowth.

Then took the other, as just as fair
And having perhaps the better claim
Because it was grassy and wanted wear
Though as for that the passing there
Had worn them really about the same

And both that morning equally lay
In leaves no step had trodden black
Oh, I marked the first for another day
Yet knowing how way leads on to way
I doubted if I should ever come back

I shall be telling this with a sigh
Somewhere ages and ages hence
Two roads diverged in a wood, and I
I took the one less traveled by
And that has made all the difference.

Hello!

This is a sample test file which is being sent to you as per your request via the Interpage FreeFax(sm) Service!

The service is intended to provide a preliminary evaluation as to the quality and usefulness of Interpage's subscription fax service(s).

If you review the cover sheet which was transmitted with this fax, you will note the first letter of the name you had indicated in the 'To' field of the FreeFax request page. This letter serves to correlate the fax request which you had sent with this trial fax transmission result.

This file is a sample MS Word file; many other file types are supported.

If you have any questions regarding Interpage's (fax)For(um) Service, including the FaxUnlimited(sm) service with no-per or per-minute charges, please feel free to contact us at:

Phone: +1 (510) 315-2750 9AM to 5:30 PM M-F Pacific Time

E-Mail: fax-support@interpage.net

Web. http://www.interpage.net

Thank you for your interest!

FAX TESTING 1

Notes: 1. Due to the recent cost of this FreeFax service, Interpage will no longer provide personalized text messages, only the above fixed sample message will be transmitted. You may establish a trial account for real-time purposes by filling out the form located at http://www.interpage.net/fax-related, setting up billing information, and clearly indicating a valid e-mail address and optional telephone number. Please call (510) 315-2750 for additional details.

2. This fax is not a solicitation or sales offer. It was sent as a service by Interpage's customer who ordered your fax/request via either as a recipient of this fax. A single destination may receive more than one test in a given week, however. If you feel that someone sending you faxes in a continuous or disruptive manner, please call us at (510) 315-2750 and we will block your fax number from any FreeFax service.

FAX TEST

Testing from Linda Todd at AAAPP

To Fax Toy

If successful,, this document will appear at:

https://www.faxtoy.net/

https://faxanswers.com/answers/how-can-i-test-my-fax-machine

Presumably you want to test your fax machine by sending a fax from it and receiving a fax with it. Here's how to do both:

To test the send functionality of your fax machine, send a one-page fax to 1-855-330-1239 (a toll free number in the United States.) When it's finished transmitting, point your web browser to Fax.Toy — it's a fun web site that displays whatever is faxed to that number. Within a minute, your fax should appear on the site. Click the thumbnail to see a large version.

To test the receive functionality of your fax machine, point your web browser to FaxZero. This site lets you send faxes for free to anywhere in the United States and Canada. Within a few minutes, your fax machine should ring — hopefully it will automatically answer and spit out the test fax.

Tim Hayes,

Enclosed please find suspect parts removed from my spa. The new replacement parts that John provided were installed on 2-3-05 with no problems.

Only time will tell if they fixed the false "overheat" indications

Thanks for the prompt assistance that you provided me.

Sincerely,

Jim Trail

How Not to Get a Job

By ALLAN RIFF JULY 7, 2017

What do a fragrance designer, New York City cop, bed-and-breakfast manager and youth hockey coach have in common?

Each of them recently applied for an account director position at my public relations firm, along with 500 others whose experience and skill sets ranged from vaguely on-point to off-the-charts irrelevant. Auto collections manager? Home health aide? Visual merchandiser? Count them all in.

It's not that my postings on Indeed, LinkedIn and other career sites weren't explicit in outlining desired qualifications. I added instructions urging candidates to contact us only if they had backgrounds in journalism, P.R. or law. There was nothing to suggest I was looking for a fiscal benefits analyst, emergency medical technician or brand ambassador, but they showed up anyway.

In part, the disconnect stems from a revved-up labor market that encourages job hopping and inflated credentials. It also reflects the vast online jobs marketplace, where restless applicants shoot off their résumés like one of those T-shirt cannons at a football stadium, firing without aiming. Not a single candidate bothered to look us up and refer to what we do in the cover note. Instead, they all invoked grand boilerplate statements meant to impress the hiring gods.

Random Stuff Sent From Your Fax Machine
Fax something interesting toll free to 1-855-330-1239 or 1-213-294-2943

To the right are pages that folks have faxed us recently. Click any thumbnail to see the large version and rate it for interestingness.

You can fax something interesting to 1-855-330-1239 (it's a toll-free number if you're in the USA) or 1-213-294-2943 (long distance to Los Angeles, California) and it should appear here within a couple of minutes (your boss will never notice, maybe). Keep it clean & legal.

Fax single-page documents with no cover sheet. If you fax more than one page, only the last page will appear here. We try to snip off the top few pixels of the page where your company name and fax number should appear, but make no promises that this will actually work.

Privacy Policy. We hate spam and junk faxes and will absolutely not send you any unsolicited e-mail or faxes. We won't share your information with marketers or anyone else.

are: namely nothing more than a bunch of YOUR thoughts, YOUR images and YOUR sensations. They aren't YOU. YOU are the person having them.

There are some characteristics of this "psychological YOU" that are worth noting. First, the psychological YOU has been around for about as long as you can remember. When you were five or eight or ten and had a completely different body, pretty much the same YOU that is here now was there then. Secondly, this psychological YOU is a little like the eye of a hurricane. While thoughts, images and sensations swirl around and come and go, this psychological YOU remains pretty much the same even though the many places it may be very different; or like the way a kitchen remains pretty much the same even though the many meals prepared in it may be very different. Sometimes it is nice to experience a sense of stability in life especially if many other places are changing. This "YOU" provides that sense of stability.

A third, and perhaps most important, characteristic is that when in contact with this psychological YOU it is quite clear that no matter how "out of control" YOUR thoughts, images or sensations seem to be, YOU are very much in control of YOUR hands, arms, feet and mouth. No matter how much YOU have the thought "I MUST drink," YOU can choose to do things with YOUR hands, arms, feet and mouth other than drink. No matter how strongly YOU have an urge avoid work, YOU can choose to do things with your hands, arms, feet and mouth that keep you focused on work. No matter how vividly YOU have an image of a short run enjoyment, YOU can do the things that are important to you in the long run.

So, the kind of mindfulness I am talking about includes being present with YOUR thoughts, images and sensations while recognizing they ARE a bunch of thoughts, images and sensations, and also recognizing YOU can exert control over your hands, arms, feet and mouth. The mindfulness I am talking about also includes "being mindful" of what direction you are taking with your hands, arms, feet and mouth. It asks the question "Am I, right now, right now, in this present moment, moving my hands, arms, feet and mouth in a direction that is actually important to me?"

"If I choose to be the best student I can be, are these movements that I am making right here, right now, in that direction?"

"If I choose to be the best parent I can be, are these movements that I am making, right here, right now, in that direction?"

"If I choose to be the best mate I can be, are these movements that I am making, right here, right now in that direction?"

"If I choose to be the best worker I can be, are these movements that I am making, right here, right now, in that direction?"

"Whatever direction I choose, are these movements that I am making, in this present moment, taking me in that direction? If not, then with my very next movement, I will put my actions in line with the direction in my life that I choose to make important."

How does a person "be where they are and do what's important?" Like anything else, by practicing! Our thoughts and images and sensations invite us to take a ride out of the present moment and off in -- well who knows where?) However, when we notice they are only thoughts, only images, and only sensations, we can "let them leave the station" without us. We focus on doing, in this very moment, whatever the moment requires for us to move in directions we choose to make important with our life. Practice, practice, practice and, likely, we'll get better at: (1) being mindful that our thoughts, images and sensations are only that, (2) being mindful of our control over our hands, arms, feet and mouth...and (3) being mindful of choosing the direction in which we exert that control.

Mr. Bloomberg, Mr. Murdoch, Mr. Colbert

It's too late to make a difference this year, but Congress, or at least one subcommittee, finally heard a thoughtful discussion about immigration. Mayor Michael Bloomberg of New York and Rupert Murdoch, head of News Corporation — both billionaires — told the Immigration subcommittee of the House Judiciary Committee that cultural and well-organized integration is an economic necessity.

Mr. Bloomberg told how New York City, rich in foreign born, has created cottage industries, while ruling out the huddled-masses-by-the-subway-cart of the country. He warned that America's refusal to fix its broken immigration system is a form of "national suicide."

Mr. Murdoch lamented that the world's best and brightest outmaneuvered degrees here and then go home, signaled by cell tape and accessory visa queues. He argued that giving illegal immigrants a path to citizenship would bring them "out of a shadowy economy and add to our tax base," and said "it's nonsensical to talk of expelling 11 or 12 million people."

When Representative Maxine Waters asked whom, on Mr. Murdoch's Fox News, it was possible to hear arguments like his, Mr. Murdoch said she could find them in The Wall Street Journal. That is a start.

A few days earlier, the same panel heard from the TV satirist Stephen Colbert, who told of his difficult day picking wraps with migrant farm workers. His approach, mostly played in character as a conservative blowhard, was a comedy routine wrapped around a beautiful truth: that farm work is a difficult and dangerous job that most Americans will not stoop to do.

We are not sure all committee members got it. We believe a few more Americans would, if their elected leaders talked as bluntly but as persuasively as Mayor Bloomberg and Mr. Murdoch — and with as much humor as Mr. Colbert.

Editorial Notebook

Playing With Fire

Nothing a child is already a journey through self-doubt and guilt, and you have no sooner come to say a very severe decision than what you finally used to do is hand our young as a power tools and let them learn on self-torture.

Mr. Talley is a prodigiously literate, disappointed, an admirable one. He wrote a book, now in its seventh edition, and founded the Tinkering School, near San Francisco, whose students do make work with real tools and real explosives.

His argument: Children should get out more. They should learn to work with their hands, not just their thumbs. Students, he says, if they don't, may run wrong their tendencies toward risk, curiosity and mischief-making.

Mr. Talley's book, "Fifty Dangerous Things (You Should Let Your Children Do)," is a rebuke to a world of black-edged warnings, milquetoast plastic playground equipment and perpetual parental anxiety. He believes parents don't recognize what is more likely to endanger children (or maybe even stymie). As he says that by engaging in (supervised or validly risky) real-world play, children can become better problem-solvers and judges of risk. Children who don't get accustomed with trivial danger (No. 8: Climb Your Kitchen Window No. 39: Climb a Tree), he says, aren't recognize real danger or can't handle it when it comes.

Mr. Talley has no children. His theories probably make more sense on chaotic suburbs than in cities with urban would not endorse all his 50 things, ones of which — like No. 38: Pummel Your Friends with super-salty cookies) may No. 1: Play a Type-Ask Battery — are inexplicable or gross. But it's many enough to think of good replacements: log a hole, roll down a hill, run a boat.

His book reminded me of David Sumwalt, a city surgeon to Capt. James Cook, the British explorer. In 1778, transfixed by the sight of Hawaiian children on surfboards, Sumwalt wrote: "We saw each entertainment young boys & Girls about 8 or ten years of age playing amid such perpetuation Waves that the hardiest of our seamen would have trembled to face. So true it is that many seeming difficulties are easily overcome by dexterity & Perseverance."

Mr. Sumwalt, meet Mr. Talley; today's keeper of your mixed legacy. Some chapter can dissolve into fun, if you dress soon you're doing.

Efficient, Not Sustainable

To the Editor:

Re "In Arlington Herald a Sustainable City Rises, Walled and Lofty" by Nicolai Ouroussoff (Critic's Notebook, Sept. 26):

The city of Masdar, soon also Dubai, may be energy-efficient, however, sustainable it is not.

It fails like all cities. In a geography is not diverse or large enough to decidedly supply the resources needed to maintain its inhabitants's demand to procure their wishes. This no less dense land.

A regional model should try to assess sustainability's desire and economic goals, something Masdar's waste and small scale prevent. Sustainability requires thoughtful integration and consideration.

BALTIMORE RAVENS PRESS RELEASE

UNDER ARMOUR PERFORMANCE CENTER | 1 WINNING DRIVE | OWINGS MILLS, MD 21117 | PH: 410/701-4000

PRESEASON GAME 4: BALTIMORE AT ST. LOUIS

AUG. 30, 2012 • 7:00 P.M. ET • EDWARD JONES DOME (66,000)

JUST THE FACTS

- The Baltimore Ravens will complete the preseason when they play at the St. Louis Rams this Thursday, Aug. 30. Game time at the Edward Jones Dome has been changed to 7 p.m. ET from 8 p.m. The Ravens take a 2-1 record into the contest after last Thursday's (8/23) 48-17 victory over the visiting Jaguars. The Rams, under new head coach Jeff Fisher, sport a 1-1 mark into Saturday night's game at Dallas.

- In the Ravens' three preseason games, QB Joe Flacco completed 43 of 60 passes for 483 yards, with 3 TDs and 1 INT for a 101.6 QB rating. WR Torrey Smith, who caught 3 TD passes from Flacco in last season's 37-7 regular season victory at the Rams (3/25), has a team-leading 11 catches for 146 yards in the preseason.

- The Ravens are the only team in the NFL to earn the playoffs each of the last four seasons. No one else, Baltimore has won a postseason game in each of those years, including its 2011 run that advanced in the AFC Championship and lost a gut-wrenching, 23-20 decision at the New England Patriots.

- John Harbaugh, the only head coach in NFL history to take his team to and win at least one playoff game in each of his first four seasons. Is in his fifth year in the Ravens' head coach. The 8 are a number of changes on the primary coaching staff, including the promotion of Dean Pees to defensive coordinator and the addition of Jim Caldwell as quarterbacks coach. Pees may avoid Chuck Pagano, the Colts' new head coach, who took over for Caldwell.

- The Ravens open the regular season on Monday night, Sept. 10 nga nst the Bengals at M&T Bank Stadium and then play at Philadelphia the following Sunday (9/16).

HARBS SAYS

"The offense made progress in the third preseason game, but there's still room for improvement. We're returning the roster. The pressure builds on the players, especially the young ones and some veterans who are fighting to make the Ravens. It's tense. They want to be part of this, real. They can't be; they want to show us all that they can be a part of the team. For some, the last preseason game will determine whether they belong in the NFL or not."

INJURY REPORT

OLB Terrell Suggs — Out. He suffered the 2011 NFL Defensive Player of the Year on a Visit Achilles tendon tear on the AstroTurf. The following player's did not play in the Jaguars last Thursday because of injury: LB Darryl Blackstock (groin); LB Josh Bynes (back); TE Ed Dickson (shoulder); DT Ryan Mcbean (leg); TE Dennis Pitta (hand); T/G Jah Reid (calf) and C Marshal Yanda (knee).

NOTE THE QUOTE

QB Lardar Us Weis on Study Ng

"I see Ray [Lewis] and Ed [Reed] always with their pads, studying the coverages, and I thought I'd better get in there, too. Ray would say to me, 'Eat something for me!' And, wouldn't I'll be looking at the film—but I don't really know how to study it. Now if Ray or Ed ask me if I have something, I'll be able to answer with a lot of film, but I'm learning now when I watch, and it's carrying over to the way I play."

WHAT'S GOING ON?

RAVENS PLAYERS AMONG BEST —

There are many lists of the best players in the NFL, but only one was recorded by votes from players in the league—that compiled by the NFL Network. On that list, Baltimore had both Philadelphia and San Francisco for most, in the Top 100 with seven players selected.

Version 2010.1 (November 3, 2010)

THIS AGREEMENT GIVES US RIGHTS IN CONTENT YOU CONTRIBUTE TO AMAZON STUDIOS. PLEASE READ IT CAREFULLY.

This Agreement is a binding agreement between Amazon Content Services LLC ("Amazon", "we" or "us") and you or, if applicable, the individual, company or other legal entity you represent ("you"). It sets forth our rights in any screenplay, movie or other content that you contribute to the Amazon Studios crowd-sourced movie development service ("Amazon Studios") using a content contribution tool provided on Amazon Studios ("Content"). "Content" does not include and this Agreement does not cover comments and reviews you contribute to Amazon Studios. Our rights to use those comments and reviews are set forth in the Amazon Studios Access Agreement (the "Account Agreement"), which also contains limitations of liability, governing law and other provisions relevant to all of your activities on Amazon Studios, including your activities under this Agreement.

We've structured this Agreement to include a main agreement and an Option Agreement attached as addendum A ("Option Agreement"), which follows the format of traditional motion picture option agreements in the U.S. movie industry. We've done this so that the Option Agreement can stand on its own and can be assigned to a studio or production company that wants to produce a motion picture based on your contribution. How to test a fax machine – 02

How Can I Test My Fax Machine?

I just hooked up a new fax machine, and I'd like to test it, just to make sure it works. How can I do that?

Presumably, you want to test your fax machine by sending a fax from it and receiving a fax with it. Here's how to do both:

To test the send functionality of your fax machine, send a one page fax to 1 855-330 1239 (a toll free number in the United States.) When it's finished transmitting, point your web browser to Fax Toy — it's a fun web site that displays whatever is faxed to that number. Within a minute, your fax should appear on the site. Click the thumbnail to see a large version.

To test the receive functionality of your fax machine, point your web browser to FaxZero. This site lets you send faxes for free to anywhere in the United States and Canada. Within a few minutes, your fax machine should ring — hopefully, it will automatically answer and spit out the test fax.

thought made just thinking"Are we going to click?""Are we going to have that bond still?"We all sat down and she told her stories about how she found some cool friends in prison and how sometime's she ran into some trouble with the girls and fought some of them because they got to close or the was just simply"doing too much "We all just sat around all day and talked about our life and stuff

Next thing I knew I was moving back down to LA with her for another try You know life isn't always what it seems to be.I am now 12 years old and back in oakland because the same thing happened but this time I only stayed with her for a year You know now that I am older and I know not to follow her eventhough I used to as a kid.I guess that by going threw all of this changed the way I acted.Even though I might look like my life is all great,my life isn't wat it seems.

Presumably you want to test your fax machine by sending a fax from it and receiving a fax with it. Here's how to do both

To test the send functionality of your fax machine, send a one-page fax to 1-888-877-1655 (a toll-free number in the United States.) When it s finished transmitting, point your web browser to Fax Toy — it s a fun web site that displays whatever is faxed to that number Within a minute your fax should appear on the site Click the thumbnail to see a large version.

To test the receive functionality of your fax machine, point your web browser to FaxZero this site lets you send faxes for free to anywhere in the United States and Canada Within a few minutes, your fax machine should ring — hopefully, it will automatically answer and spit out the test fax

A Tasty Bit Of RacyPy

Why not have a play with RacyPy and jump into the world of Linux and programming? RacyPy, which uses Puppy, a lightweight Linux distribution, which can be used to run Linux on any PC without even installing it. RacyPy is packaged with a range of tools, ready to go, so it can be ready to try [illegible] in the image over.

What Is RacyPy?

RacyPy, is a pre-packaged cd image which when "booted" (run from power up) will load a graphical desktop similar to a MS Windows or Apple Mac computer.

The RacyPy image is setup as a "Live CD" which means it loads directly to memory and nothing is installed.

RacyPy comes with a range of software ready to run, such as

- AbiWord — word processing
- Gnumeric — spreadsheets
- Seamonkey — web-browsing
- mtPaint — graphic editing
- Geany/Vim — programming editors
- MPlayer/Ogle Pmusic — video DVD/ music playback
- Python 2.7.2 and 3.1.4 — programming

Plus many other useful utilities. If you decide to use RacyPy more than once, you can also setup a USB Memory Device to store your user data on. This will also allow you to install any additional programs which will be loaded every time you reload it.

Get Ready!

First, obtain the iso image file

Racy-5PyTeampython.iso (384Mb)

http://goo.gl/UykP4

Depending on the method you'll need

Live CD	Blank CDR & CD/DVD Writer*
Virtual Machine	940Mb hard-drive space This includes: ~360Mb for the Virtual Machine software when installed 384Mb for the iso file 256Mb for temporary RAM space (only needed when running)

If you intend on keeping your settings (which can then be loaded each time) then it is recommended you have a USB flash memory stick of at least 1Gb or more.

Universal USB Installer

http://www.pendrivelinux.com

If you don't have a CD/DVD drive on your system it is also possible to boot and run Linux from a USB memory device (1Gb or more).

Follow the guide from http://goo.gl/S4VTI but instead of "Lucid Puppy" select "Racy Puppy". Then press "browse" to Racy 5PyTeampython.iso you downloaded above. If you don't see it try ensure you have named it with "racy-5" at the start of the filename.

Thanks to Tom Mitchell and Andrew Pamment for their help with this article.

TRIPP·LITE SmartRack™

Premium Rack Solutions

Best Value — Compact and pre-configured cabinets up-front costs. Smart rack enclosure cabinets save valuable IT staff time during each step of installation Convenient — The tool-free keyhole mounting makes installing PDUs and cable management quick and easy. Easy-view index system simplifies vertical rail adjustment.

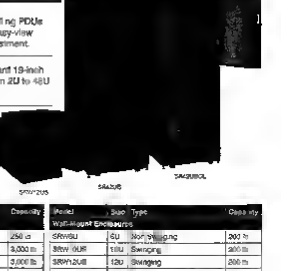
Versatile — Guaranteed compatibility with all standard 19-inch rack equipment. Multiple rack types from 2U to 48U support a wide range of applications

Sturdy — Heavy-duty steel frames support up to 3,000 pounds of equipment in place or 2,250 pounds rolling.



Rack Types (With Model Prefix Suffix)

Standard (-UB Suffix)
Include removable doors and side panels. Shipping assembled

Expansion (-UBEXP Suffix)
Like standard models, but without side panels. For linking applications

Cube-shaped (-UBCL Suffix)
Include two secure compartments (upper and lower) and separate lockable doors.

Wall-Mount (SWR- Prefix)
Compact enclosures and open frame racks mount to wall, on desks or where there's no room for floor space. Most models include a hinged swinging wall bracket for easy access.

Deep (-UBDP Suffix), Wide (-UBWD Suffix), Deep & Wide (-UBDPWD Suffix)
Extra width and/or depth supports deeper server, networking and telco chassis, while helping PDUs and cables from obstructing airflow.

Knockdown (-UBKD Suffix)
Ship flat in several sections for easy transport and assembly in tight spaces

Shock Pallet (-UBSP1 or -UBSP2 Suffix)
Include pallet with 1,250 lb (SP1) or 2,000 lb (SP2) capacity and loading ramps for equipment pre-installation and reshipment to the final installation site

Open Frame Racks
2-post and 4-post open frame racks provide economical equipment installations for applications that do not require a secure cabinet.

A ladder, 13 metres long, is leaning against the side of a building. If the foot of the ladder is pulled away from the building at a rate of $\frac{1}{5}$ metres per second,

(a) How fast is the top of the ladder moving down the side of the building when the top is 12 feet above the ground?

(b) How fast is the top of the ladder moving down the side of the building when the top is 5 feet above the ground?

(c) At what rate is this angle θ changing when the ladder is 5 feet above the ground?

5. (a) Graph $\sin^{-1}\left(\frac{x}{2}\right)$.

(b) Find the derivative of $\sin^{-1}\left(\frac{x}{2}\right)$.

Dear Pete,

Permit me to introduce you to the facility of facsimile transmission.

In facsimile a photocell is caused to perform a raster scan over the subject copy. The variations of print density on the document cause the photocell to generate an analogous electrical video signal. This signal is used to modulate a carrier, which is transmitted to a remote destination over a radio or cable communications link.

At the remote terminal, demodulation reconstructs the video signal, which is used to modulate the density of print produced by a printing device. This device is scanning in a raster scan synchronised with that at the transmitting terminal. As a result, a facsimile copy of the subject document is produced.

Probably you have uses for this facility in your organisation.

Yours sincerely,

Phil.

The organizers of A Day Without a Woman acknowledge the uneven access on their website. "Many women in our most vulnerable communities will not have the ability to join the strike, due to economic insecurity," they wrote. "We strike for them. Many others work jobs that provide essential services, including reproductive health services, and taking off work would come at a great social cost. We recognize the value of their contribution."

Did god say that they could decide
Who will live and who will die?
All my mama ever did
Was try to take care of her kids

When innocence is standing by Watching people loosing lives
It seem as if we have no voice
It's time for us to make a choice

Only god could decide
Who will live and who will die
There's nothing that can't be done
If we raise our voice as one

Did god hear it from me?
Did god hear it from you?
Did god hear it from us?

We can't take it
We've already had enough

Did god hear it from me?
Did god hear it from you?
Did god hear it from us?

We can't take it
We've already had enough

Thank god I care for me
Thank god I care for you
Thank god it came from you babe

We can't take it
We've already had enough

Deep in my soul baby
Deep in your soul and by your side
Deep in my soul
It's so big and I'm still alive
Did god hear it from us?
We can't take it
We've already had enough
It's going down baby
Just let god decide,
It's going on baby
Just let god decide
Deep in my soul baby
We've already had enough
Did god hear it from me?
Did god hear it from you ?
Did god hear it from us?
We can it we can't
We've already had enough

HP Fax Products - Testing Your HP Fax Machine with the HP Fax Test Service

Introduction

This document will assist you in testing your HP Fax machine using the HP Fax Test Service.

Print this document for easy reference by clicking the Printable Version link in the upper right corner of this page.

Test your fax machine

To test the capability of your fax machine, follow the directions below.

NOTE:

Be sure that your phone number is not Caller ID blocked by your telephone company prior to attempting to send and receive a fax. Pressing *82 before dialing the toll free number will unblock the caller ID blocking feature in most areas. Other phone company services can prevent you from receiving a fax, including voice mail, call blocking, or call privacy features.

NOTE

When you troubleshooting a fax issue, it is good practice to set the Automatic Reports option to Every Error before attempting a test fax. This way, even if the send fax fails, an error code will be generated that will guide you in future troubleshooting. This option is available in different places on different products; consult the product User's Guide for specific steps.

1. Send a one page black and white text fax to

   1-888-hpfaxme (1-888-473-2963)

2. When your fax is received by the HP Test Fax Service, we will generate a return fax to you within five minutes confirming that we received your fax. This verifies that you can both send and receive a fax with your fax machine.

If you do not receive a return fax within 5-7 minutes, there may be a problem with the setup of your fax machine. Consult the user manual that came with the product for proper setup and configuration.

How Can I Test My Fax Machine?

I just hooked up a new fax machine and I'd like to test it just to make sure it works. How can I do that?

Presumably, you want to test your fax machine by sending a fax from it and receiving a fax with it. Here's how to do both:

To test the send functionality of your fax machine, send a one-page fax to 1-855-330-1239 (a toll-free number in the United States.) When it's finished transmitting, point your web browser to FaxToy — it's a fun web site that displays whatever is faxed to that number. Within a minute, your fax should appear on the site. Click the thumbnail to see a large version.

To test the receive functionality of your fax machine, point your web browser to FaxZero, this site lets you send faxes for free to anywhere in the United States and Canada. Within a few minutes, your fax machine should ring — hopefully, it will automatically answer and spit out the test fax.

Test Message

Our Father, which art in heaven,
hallowed be thy name,
thy kingdom come,
thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven
Give us this day our daily bread
And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive them that trespass against us
And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil
[For thine is the kingdom,
the power, and the glory,
for ever and ever]
Amen

Exercise may improve balance, mobility and quality of life in people with Parkinson's

Neurology / Neuroscience

VIN Text and Audience Journal

For the estimated half a million people in the US living with Parkinson's disease, a mpla day-to-day activities can prove a challenge. But a new study claims exercise can improve balance, mobility and overall quality of life for individuals with the condition. In patients with less severe Parkinson's, exercise may even reduce the risk of falls.

The researchers, including Colleen G. Canning, PhD, of the University of Sydney in Australia, publish their findings in the journal Neurology.

Parkinson's disease is a progressive neurological disorder that is newly diagnosed in around 50,000 Americans each year. Onset is most common in among individuals over the age of 60, and the disease affects around 50% more men than women.

Triggered by damaged neurons in an area of the brain that controls movement, Parkinson's disease can cause involuntary movements or tremors, impaired balance and coordination, and problems standing and walking.

As such, falling is common among people with Parkinson's: around 60% of individuals with the disease experience a fall each year, and approximately two thirds of these fall frequently.

Practice in Parkinson's and engaged in these 45-60 minute exercise sessions over a year found to have better mobility, balance and quality of life, according to researchers

"The resulting injuries, pain, limitations of activity and fear of falling again can really affect people's health and well-being," notes Canning.

Exercise reduced falls by 70% in patients with less severe Parkinson's

In their study, the researchers set out to see whether exercise could reduce the risk of falls and improve balance, movements and overall life quality in 25 people with Parkinson's.

Canning and colleagues randomized the participants to either take part in a 40-60 minute exercise program three times a week for 6 months or to continue with their usual care.

- Stage IIIE Cancer is found in lymph node groups on both sides of the diaphragm and in an area or organ other than the lymph nodes.
- Stage IIIS Cancer is found in lymph node groups on both sides of the diaphragm and in the spleen.
- Stage IIIS+E Cancer is found in lymph node groups on both sides of the diaphragm in an area or organ other than the lymph nodes, and in the spleen.

Stage IV

In stage IV adult non-Hodgkin lymphoma, the cancer either:

- is found throughout one or more organs other than the lymph nodes and may be in lymph nodes near those organs or
- is found in one organ other than the lymph nodes and has spread to lymph nodes far away from that organ.

Adult non-Hodgkin lymphomas are also described in terms of how fast they grow and the location of affected lymph nodes.

Indolent or aggressive:

- Indolent lymphomas. These tend to grow and spread slowly and have few symptoms.
- Aggressive lymphomas. These grow and spread quickly and have severe symptoms. Lymphoblastic lymphoma, diffuse small cleaved cell lymphoma/Burkitt lymphoma, and mantle cell lymphoma are 3 types of aggressive adult non-Hodgkin lymphoma. Aggressive lymphomas are seen more often in patients who are HIV -positive (AIDS -related lymphoma).

Contiguous or noncontiguous.

- Contiguous lymphomas: Lymphomas in which the lymph nodes containing cancer are next to each other.
- Noncontiguous lymphomas: Lymphomas in which the lymph nodes containing cancer are not next to each other, but are on the same side of the diaphragm.

Recurrent Adult Non-Hodgkin Lymphoma

Recurrent adult non-Hodgkin lymphoma is cancer that has recurred (come back) after it has been treated. The lymphoma may come back in the lymph system or in other parts of the body. Indolent lymphoma may come back as aggressive lymphoma. Aggressive lymphoma may come back as indolent lymphoma.

Terry Mason This is a test fax from Terry Mason almost despondent; for this was the saddest of his disappointments to behold a man who might have fulfilled the prophecy and had not willed to do so." (The Great Stone Face p.125-126.)

Two differences in experience between Michael and Ernest were:

1. Ernest was not being punished for any wrongdoing in his having to wait for the man with the likeness of the Great Stone Face. "'Fear not, Ernest,' said his heart, even as if the Great Face were whispering to him—'fear not, Ernest, he will come.'" (The Great Stone Face p. 124) Michael disobeyed God and was sent to learn three truths while Ernest simply was required to have patience for the day that the man would appear. There was no retribution involved. "And Simon said, 'Tell me, Michael, what did God punish you for? and what were the three truths? that I too may know them.' And Michael answered, 'God punished me for disobeying Him.'" (What Men Live By p. 199)

2. Michael was aware of whom he was even when the moment came and the third truth was uttered. "And the angel sang praise to God, so that the hut trembled at his voice. The roof opened, and a column of fire rose from earth to heaven. Wings appeared upon the angel's shoulders, and he rose into the heavens." (What Men Live By p. 201) Ernest was never aware nor accepted that he was the man that he had waited all his life for. He lived on without realization, hoping a better man would come. "But Ernest, having finished what he had to say, took the poet's arm...and walked slowly homeward, still hoping that some wiser and better man than himself would by and by appear, bearing a resemblance to the GREAT STONE FACE." (The Great Stone Face p. 126)

How Can I Test My Fax Machine?

I just hooked up a new fax machine, and I'd like to test it. Just to make sure it works. How can I do that?

Presumably you want to test your fax machine by sending a fax from it and receiving a fax with it. Here's how to do both:

To test the send functionality of your fax machine, send a one-page fax to 1 888-877 1955 (a toll free number in the United States.) When it's finished transmitting, point your web browser to Fax Toy — it's a fun web site that displays whatever is faxed to that number. Within a minute your fax should appear on the site. Click the thumbnail to see a large version.

To test the receive functionality of your fax machine, point your web browser to FaxZero: this site lets you send faxes for free to anywhere in the United States and Canada. Within a few minutes your fax machine should ring — hopefully. It will automatically answer and spit out the test fax.

1. DISPUTE RESOLUTION BY BINDING ARBITRATION.

1.1 Summary of Arbitration Agreement. Please read this carefully. It affects your rights. Most customer concerns can be resolved quickly and to the customer's satisfaction by calling our customer service department. In the unlikely event that AT&T's customer service department is unable to resolve a complaint you may have to your satisfaction (or if AT&T has not been able to resolve a dispute it has with you after attempting to do so informally), we each agree to resolve those disputes through binding arbitration or small claims court instead of in courts of general jurisdiction. Arbitration is more informal than a lawsuit in court. Arbitration uses a neutral arbitrator instead of a judge or jury, allows for more limited discovery than in court, and is subject to very limited review by courts. Arbitrators can award the same damages and relief that a court can award. Any arbitration under this Agreement will take place on an individual basis; class arbitrations and class actions are not permitted. For any non-frivolous claim that does not exceed $75,000, AT&T will pay all costs of the arbitration. Moreover in arbitration you are entitled to recover attorneys' fees from AT&T to at least the same extent as you would be in court.

In addition, under certain circumstances (as explained below), AT&T will pay you more than the amount of the arbitrator's award and will pay you a minimum of $10,000 or two times the reasonable attorneys' fees if the arbitrator awards you an amount that is greater than what AT&T has offered you to settle the dispute.

1.2 Arbitration Agreement.

(1) AT&T and you agree to arbitrate all disputes and claims between us. This agreement to arbitrate is intended to be broad and interpreted it includes, but is not limited to:

- claims arising out of or relating to any aspect of the relationship between us, whether based in contract, tort, statute, fraud, misrepresentation or any other legal theory;
- claims that arose before this or any prior Agreement (including, but not limited to, claims relating to advertising);
- claims that are currently the subject of purported class action litigation in which you are not a member of a certified class; and
- claims that may arise after the termination of this Agreement.

References to "AT&T," "you," and "us" include our respective subsidiaries, affiliates, agents, employees, predecessors in interest, successors and assigns, as well as all authorized or unauthorized users or beneficiaries of services or devices under this or prior Agreements between us. Notwithstanding the foregoing, either party may forgo an individual action in small claims court. This arbitration agreement does not preclude you from bringing issues to the attention of federal, state, or local agencies, including, for example, the Federal Communications Commission. Such agencies can, if the law allows, seek relief against us on your behalf. You agree that, by entering into this Agreement, you and AT&T are each waiving the right to a trial by jury or to participate in a class action. This Agreement evidences a transaction in interstate commerce, and thus the Federal Arbitration Act governs the interpretation and enforcement of this provision. This arbitration provision shall survive termination of the Agreement.

(2) A party who intends to seek an initial claim must first send to the other by certified mail a written Notice of Dispute ("Notice"). The Notice to AT&T should be addressed to: Office of Dispute Resolution, P.O. Box 1025, Landis Point Blvd., Atlanta, GA 30319 ("Notice Address"). The Notice must describe the nature and basis of the claim or dispute, and (b) set forth the specific relief sought ("Demand"). If AT&T and you do not reach an agreement to resolve the claim within 30 days after the Notice is received, you or AT&T may commence an arbitration proceeding. During the arbitration, the amount of any settlement offer made by AT&T or you shall not be disclosed to the arbitrator until after the arbitrator determines the amount, if any, to which you or AT&T is entitled. You may download or copy a form Notice and a form to initiate arbitration at att.com/esupt/disputeforms.

(3) After AT&T receives notice at the Notice Address that you have commenced arbitration, it will promptly reimburse you for your payment of the filing fee, unless your claim is for greater than $75,000. (The filing fee currently is $200 for claims under $10,000 but is subject to change by the arbitrator or provider. If you are unable to pay this fee, AT&T will pay it directly upon receiving a written request at the Notice Address.) The arbitration will be governed by the Consumer Arbitration Rules ("AAA Rules") of the American Arbitration Association ("AAA"), as modified by this Agreement, and will be administered by the AAA. The AAA Rules are available online at adr.org, by calling the AAA at 1-800-778-7879, or by writing to the Notice Address. (You may obtain information that is designed for non-lawyers about the arbitration process at adr.org/arbitration-information.) The arbitrator is bound by the terms of this Agreement. All issues are for the arbitrator to decide, except that issues relating to the scope and enforceability of the arbitration provision are for the court to decide. Unless AT&T and you agree otherwise, any arbitration hearings will take place in the county (or parish) of your billing address. If your claim is for $10,000 or less, we agree that you may choose whether the arbitration will be conducted solely on the basis of documents submitted to the arbitrator, through a telephonic hearing, or by an in-person hearing as established by the AAA Rules. If your claim exceeds $10,000, the right to a hearing will be determined by the

Answers to your questions about faxing

Here's How I Test My Fax Machine?

Unfortunately, your best bet is to test your fax machine by sending a fax from it and receiving a fax with it. Here's how to do both.

To test the send functionality of your fax machine, send it one page! Go to 1-800-555-1212 (or look up the U.S. Toll Free Directory Where?). Inquire if somebody, preferably your best friend or boyfriend, has a fax machine. Then call the Operator's attention to Send it. Wait a minute. Where's the... Now, they should answer on the other. Press the Send button on your fax machine.

To test the receive functionality of your fax machine, send a fax with the letter "a" to the fax machine that you just found from the Operator. Wait a minute. Where's the... Now, they should answer on the other. Press the Receive button on your fax machine.

Bloom's Taxonomy: Revised

Mary Forehand has summerized the new and improved Bloom's taxonomy published in 2001 by Lorin Anderson, a former student of Bloom, and a team of researchers. Here are the two versions side by side

ORIGINAL	REVISED
Evaluation	Creating
Synthesis	Evaluating
Analysis	Analyzing
Application	Applying
Comprehension	Understanding
Knowledge	Remembering

The details of the revised taxonomy (Anderson and Krathwohl, 2001) with questions applying at each level to the story of Goldilocks (from the Omaha Public Schools Teacher's Corner) are

Remembering: Retrieving, recognizing, and recalling relevant knowledge from long term memory – Describe where Goldilocks lived

Understanding: Constructing meaning from oral, written, and graphic messages through interpreting, exemplifying, classifying, summarizing, inferring, comparing, and explaining – Summarize what the Goldilocks story was about

Applying: Carrying out or using a procedure through executing, or implementing – Construct a theory as to why Goldilocks went into the house

Analyzing: Breaking material into constituent parts, determining how the parts relate to one another and to an overall structure or purpose through differentiating, organizing, and attributing – Differentiate between how Goldilocks reacted and how you would react in each story event

Evaluating: Making judgments based on criteria and standards through checking and critiquing – Assess whether or not you think this really happened to Goldilocks

Creating: Putting elements together to form a coherent or functional whole; reorganizing elements into a new pattern or structure through generating, planning, or producing – Compose a song, skit, poem, or rap to convey the Goldilocks story in a new form

"Bloom's Taxonomy" by Mary Forehand, from Emerging Perspectives on Learning, Teaching, and Technology. M. Orey (Ed.) (2005)

Attached is the completed Application for Part-time Study and supporting documentation.

A financial aid representative told me that I do not qualify to receive federal aid (PELL) because my EFC was too high. However, when I logged in to my FAFSA account it shows that I am eligible to receive aid. My previous school had done a Pell recalculation because the income I received in 2018 was all from unemployment insurance benefits. The updated information may not have been available to the representative I spoke to, but now that I have made sure that the school has access to my FAFSA information, it would be much appreciated if someone could confirm whether or not I am eligible to receive federal aid.

If you need any further documentation, please contact me by phone at [redacted] or via email at [redacted] Thank you
